

Trevor Loritz

Trevor Loritz was born and raised in Green Bay, WI. He studied under Ted Jackson at Midwest Movement in Chicago and with Bruce Campbell at Motivation 2 Dance in Indianapolis. After attending Loyola Marymount University in Los Angeles, CA for two years, he decided to leave college to pursue his dance career. He later went back to school and received his bachelor's degree in Business Management from the University of Phoenix.

Some of Trevor's performance credits include Paula Abdul (Forever Your Girl Las Vegas Residency, 2020 Dick Clark New Year's Rockin' Eve, 2019 Billboard Awards, 2018 Straight Up Paula! Tour), Lady Gaga (51st SuperBowl Halftime Performance and 58th Grammy Awards), 65th Primetime Emmy's with Neil Patrick Harris, spot performances with artist Maty Noyes and German artist Helene Fischer, Austin and Ally, Fuller House, Curb Your Enthusiasm, The Masked Singer, Speechless, Arrested Development, 2014 Kid's Choice Awards, 22nd Annual Critics' Choice Awards, This Halloween in Dance on The Ellen Show, 2014 National Memorial Day Concert on PBS with Megan Hilty, RuPaul's Drag Race Reunited, and the 2010 MDA Telethon. Trevor has performed in a few Las Vegas shows: Steve Wynn's Showstoppers, Surf the Musical, and America's Got Talent Live.

He has had the opportunity to assist Tyce Diorio on Season 11 of So You Think You Can Dance. Before moving from Los Angeles in 2020, he assisted Jennifer Hamilton (Choreographer/Dance Educator/Dancer) on projects, including the 92nd Academy Awards.